

MAKE IT STICK

5 Simple Ways You Can Make This Lesson Stick With your Kids

SUPER DAD LESSON

THIS WEEK'S LESSON: SUPER DAD

IN THE CAR:

Ask your child what they learned about this week on the drive home:

Dads are a lot like superheroes. They're strong. They provide for us. They can protect us and make us feel safe. Even for those of us who don't have a dad, there is probably someone in your life who does some of these super things for you. We appreciate our "super dads" because when they take time to teach us things, and are patient with us as we learn and grow up, it reminds us that God is also patient with us and will forgive us when we make mistakes. Whoever that super person is deserves to know how much you appreciate them today. Luke 15:11-24, The Parable of the Lost Son

HANGING OUT:

Make this week's lesson real:

Encourage your kids to do something kind for the special "super dad" in their life.

AT DINNER:

Here are some great discussion starters:

- How did the father of the lost son respond when his son came home?
- How do Dads show us the love of God through their patience?
- What is one thing you appreciate about your "super dad?"

AT BEDTIME:

Quiz your child on this week's memory verse:

"Children, obey your parents as believers in the Lord. Obey them because it's the right thing to do." Ephesians 6:1 (NirV)

PARENT TIME:

What you need to know:

When was the last time you thanked the "super dad" in your life for his love and patience? If that special person is available, call or visit them today and let them know how much you truly appreciate all they did for you!
